Lady Lauren

The Inked Princess

Words: Rich Alt-Girl Botherer | Photography: Bilacous

Welcome back to Elite Lady Lauren, you're fast becoming a fixture around here. What have you been up to since we last saw you? I have been quite busy! Worked with lots of photographers and models all over the UK... I also won Miss Inked up London, and appeared in a few more magazines... Things are going well.

Very well indeed, and who better to win Miss Inked up London! Congrats, did you get a sash or a crown at all? Haha no not quite. I did win a few prizes though, and hopefully I'm going to L.A. to compete in the next stage of the competition... my fans have to vote for me!

We'll get the Elite mob behind your bid no worries. Lauren for Miss Inked up... Universe! How is your body art collection coming by the way? What are your newest additions? I've started my left sleeve... it's just flowers to cover the old crap. They are going to be bright and colourful with a black background. They're really going to pop!

Do you have any specific plans for any part of your body in terms of getting inked? Not yet, I want to slow down a bit, I'm starting to fill up fast!

You've got a jaw droppingly tremendous figure Lauren. Is it hard work staying in such fabulous shape? I walk everywhere, and I have a young son who keeps me on my toes.

Your set this month was with the incredible Bilacous. You've produced wonders with Billy, what's he like to work with? He is absolutely amazing and you can really tell he loves what he does. The cheeky smile on his face when he looks at the camera after the picture has been taken says it all. He loves it! Haha.

His use of natural light really compliments you; you're angelic in his shots. What did you think of the results? I love them, one of my best shoots to date. My style of modelling and his style of photography compliment each other so well.

Most definitely, your style and look is uniquely yours Lauren. You've gone through a few changes in your career. Where do you get your stylistic inspirations from? I don't know really, it's just me... I like being girly but with a twist.

An awesome twist! Your connection with the camera is wonderful also, and really engages the audience. Where did you learn these modelling techniques? Practice or experience? I think I'm just a natural. I try and look at the camera the way I look at a man; if you know what I mean... Lustful eyes.

We totally get what you mean, believe me. You've also been shooting a lot of late with girls like K-Jey. What's it like shooting such intimate material with another model? I love it... love shooting with other models!

If we asked your friends to describe you in one word, which one would they use? Spontaneous.

Is that a trait you like to employ in your modelling? Do you prefer direction from a photographer, or the option to be spontaneous and improvise?

Bit of both. I like a photographer to know what he wants in a shoot, and I like to put my input to it. He/she is the one who knows what I look like on camera, and have the final product in mind. I like to help, I always ask if I've done ok after a shoot. Their feedback is important to me.

You've made a triumphant return to Elite this month, but we've never gotten your take on the mag. Give us the Lauren Brock review would ya?

Yeah I love the mag. You're always using the best models; it's friendly, easy reading and just a nice thing to be involved in #teamelite.

#blushing Before we let you go Lauren, I've got to share this with our readers. I only ask this question because I know the awesome answer. What are you wearing? Haha yeah I'm wearing a onesie... I'd wear one all day everyday in the winter if I could...

Wow, Lauren Brock in a onesie, that's got to be the next shoot! So, details; colour, design...? Out with it. My onesie is pink, obviously, it's well lush... I'd definitely wear it to a shoot... I'd rock that!

And we'd definitely showcase that!! That's pretty much it Lauren, any message for your adoring Elite fan base? Yeah, I love you all! Wahoo x

Grand Theft Awesome!

With Levi Nicolle
Smith And
Beth Garratt

A hearty welcome to Elite ladies, how are you both doing today?

Levi - Yeah great thanks!

Beth - I'm all good in this hood of mine! Feeling jolly already with all this Crimbo lark.

So the burning question that's on everyone's lips after seeing your Elite feature this month is what game were you playing, and were you really playing it or are you both just terrific actresses?

Levi - We were playing the new Grand Theft Auto!

Beth - I do have an A level in drama but I'm also a geek when it comes to the Playstation!

Your shoot shows you both getting in some Xbox time. Are you big gamers?

Levi - I do like a good computer game, not that I have much time though nowadays!

Beth - Not so much anymore. I used to be nailed to the Playstation every night, but a good session with my main girl doesn't go a miss now and then!

Was it the kind of thing you guys normally wear? More importantly, did the shoot result in any freebies?

Levi - It's definitely something I would wear. Especially whilst playing the Playstation haha! We did get some free stuff off them for modelling it like.

Beth - Yeaahh dude... The outfits we wore in the shoot were freebies, which is awesome... Big thanks to Supersonic Jellybeanz!

Are you Xbox girls or are you more PS3?

Beth - Playstation all the way! Still have my first PS at home! A good portion of my childhood was spent on that shit!

Levi - Yeah I totally agree, much prefer the PS3.

The pictures you guys produced are stonking. What was the days shooting like with Grimbo?

Levi - Aww thank you! Yeah it was an awesome day. Grimbo is such a nice guy; will definitely be shooting with him again.

Beth - So much fun! Credit due to Grimbo... He's a top class photographer and bloke! The shoot got me so buzzing for the night out in Newcastle! Hoping to bump into Gaz from Geordie Shore.

Had you two ladies worked together before your Elite feature? What's the dynamic like between you on set?

Beth - Never worked with Levi before but sure will be doing it again! We're both not quite right in the head, so we get on like a house on fire! I'm only 18 so I was expecting Levi to be more mature than me... But I was so wrong! We both love a mess around and more importantly, not wearing much clothing!

It looked like you girls were having a blast, was there a lot of laughter involved on the shoot?

Levi - Plenty of laughter! Grimbo and the editor had us in stitches! They were telling loads of cheesy jokes.

Sticking with the video game theme, who do you think is the sexiest computer game character ever? Who for you has the perfect pixels (I couldn't resist)?

Beth - LARA CROFT! So glad you asked that question! She is my absolute role model! Fitness chick with an adventurous side. Holy shit my idol is an animated character... I either need to get a life or a boyfriend!

Levi - Gotta agree with Beth, I think it's got to be Lara Croft from the first Tomb Raider. Those boobs!!

Having worked so intimately with one another, what would you say are your favourite physical attributes about each other?

Levi - Beth's best physical attributes are her eyes! They are mesmerising!

Beth - Levi, Levi, Levi... There are so many... Her undercut is sick! Can't go without mentioning her boobs... Wowzas!

You were both rockin' some sweet Supersonic Jellybeanz Co clothing in your set. What was it like modelling their stuff?

Levi - Yeah Supersonic Jellybeanz are sick! It's really well made and the prints are dope!

Beth - Agreed, their stuff is so comfy to lounge around in! The phrase 'more bounce to the ounce' gets me every time.

So now you've shot together so amazingly, has that led to you two moving in together and spending your days having pillow fights and playing games online? Please don't shatter our illusions by replying in the negative... Seriously though, do you keep in touch?

Levi - Yeah that can be arranged! What do you reckon Beth should we move in together and have sexy pillow fights and play computer games? Hehe! I'm game (no pun intended)! We do FaceTime and text quite often now. I love Beth! She's beautiful inside and out, and I like to surround myself with people like that.

Beth - As much as I love a sexy pillow-mosh-pit... I live in Wales (yes, I'm a valley girl) and Levi in Manchester, so it's a bit of a pain! But we do talk nearly every day and we've got a big night out soon! Canny wait!

Lastly, what do you have to say to all our Elite readers who have probably ruined their internet enabled device by drooling on them during the perusal of your pictures?

Beth - If I could say anything it would be firstly get a tissue if you're drooling, you sexy bunch! But seriously... Be prepared to see more of us causing havoc to the world! I've only just started modelling, so give me time! P.S. blondes rule! Mwah.

Levi - Elite readers! We love you and we hope you liked the images! We can't wait to shoot together again so keep your eyes peeled.

Luka Here... It's Tattoo Queen

Ashley Luka

Welcome to Elite Ashley, how have you been? Lovely, thank you! Pretty busy but all good.

So a bit of a chicken and the egg question to start. What came first for you, tattoos or modelling? Tattooing came first! I think I had my first actual photo shoot in April 2011? I think I'd been tattooing full time just over 8 months at the time. I had done a couple of little photo shoots as favours for friends at Uni before that, but nothing professional.

Where did your passion for tattooing come from? Are you just an artistic person by nature, and ink was your outlet? Yeah I've always been into art. I was one of the kids that wanted to stay inside drawing instead of going out to play. My nan taught me to draw a cat when I was real young and I never looked back! I took Art at college too, along with Biology, Chemistry and Physics. Art was always a bit of a release for me and I'd spend all of my time in the art rooms when I wasn't in other lessons, I was a real geek haha. I didn't have many friends at college!

Being a heavily tattooed model, your modelling and your artwork are intertwined somewhat. Why do you think tattoo culture is going through such a boom right now? I think it's a very fashionable thing at the minute, possibly because of celebrity influence. I definitely see trends in tattooing when someone famous has a new tattoo. I've lost count of the amount of Cheryl Cole style hand tattoos I've done! I think celebrities are making tattoos more mainstream and acceptable, albeit usually terrible ones!

So what's popular at the moment? What designs are people running into your shop and asking for? Well I've just moved to a new shop called The Square in Solihull, and luckily most of the customers I have there are leaning more towards awesome stuff that I love to do, so I have no complaints at the minute. Before that there was definitely a big call for religious sleeves, and I was tattooing a lot of script too.

What about your pieces Ashley? I won't ask about them all, but roughly how many designs do you have at present?

I honestly couldn't tell you a number. It's difficult to say because something like a sleeve or a back piece is done over a number of sittings so I'm not entirely sure. I have a finished back piece, a finished sleeve, an unfinished sleeve, a lady on my side, 3 portraits, 1 unfinished Japanese type leg sleeve, and the other leg is a bit of a random selection which I've let my friends doodle on!

You've mentioned a few pieces there that I'd love to get some more details on. Your back piece for one, it's an event to take in in its entirety. You must get asked about it all the time, but could you talk us through it?

Haha yeah it gets a little attention! I originally had a horrible wonky tribal design on my lower back that I really wanted to cover up. It eventually got covered with some smoke and cherry blossoms that leads into a phoenix. At the top there are two swallows holding roses, with the quote 'nothing really dies as long as it's not forgotten' - this was originally for my bulldog Spike who I adored and sadly passed away, but it's a really lovely quote in general, from a trilogy of books called The Forbidden Game. Then there's a crown on top of that with some more cherry blossoms. The whole thing was done by Helen Brown at Gung Ho! In Moseley.

It is a wonderful visual journey to go on. Lastly on your own pieces, could I also ask about your sea inspired sleeve, and the blushing woman on your shin? Two other designs that are superb choices.

Sure! The underwater sleeve is by Charlotte Timmons, and is something I wanted ever since I could remember but I was really hesitant to start it because I had an image in my mind of how I wanted it, and it had to be perfect. I used to want to be a Marine Biologist when I was younger, and sharks are one of my favourite animals, so that's the reason for that sleeve. The lady on my shin was tattooed by Rachel Baldwin at Liverpool Tattoo Convention in 2011. She was a bit of a spur of the moment thing, I went to see Rachel who showed me lots of designs and we settled on that one. There's no real reason behind it, I just love her ladies! Also, shin tattoos are NOT pain free!! Haha.

Speaking of pain, a woman in your position would be perfect to answer these questions. Firstly, where's the most painful place to get tattooed in your opinion. Also, as a tattooist, where is the most awkward place to give someone a design?

EVERYWHERE! I'm generally a massive wuss and I'm finding that tattoos hurt more as I get older! I'd say shin, ribs, feet/hands/fingers, knees, wrists and lower back are pretty high pain though. Ribs/stomach are, for me, the worst places to tattoo someone, mostly because the side of your body naturally dips in the middle, so it's hard to get someone into a good position to tattoo. And you have to try and counteract the movement of someone breathing in and out, which can be really tough.

On to your modelling if we may Ashley, I've had the pleasure of delving into your portfolio many times. I adore the way you use your body in your work, examples of which can be seen in your Elite feature this month. You've got a dance and gymnastics background, do you think that helps with positioning and holding poses when you're working? Would you say some of the same disciplines are used in dance and modelling in terms of body posture and movement?

I do! Yeah they definitely intermix. I'm still quite bendy from gymnastics so I can get myself into some positions that I probably wouldn't be able to if I didn't have the same background. Modelling is harder on the body than people think, after a photo shoot my back is in pieces for a couple of days from sticking my bum out so much haha! Dance definitely helps in keeping my movements fluid and not being stiff.

I mentioned your fabulous Elite feature, and can I get your impression of the days shooting and working with Adam Hoskins?

Adam was a lovely guy, I think one of the first things he did was get me naked and in the bath! Haha. I felt super comfortable with him and I think he took some awesome photos. I'd love to work with him again.

That's a pretty good first step we'd say. We echo your love of the pictures you two produced. How have you enjoyed your Elite debut Ashley?

It's been awesome! I'm super excited to see the final thing and hopefully be in Elite a lot more from now on!

Fantastic news. Have you got a message for all our Elite readers, some of whom have just been introduced to your awesomeness for the first time.

Don't be shy! Come say hi and get something absolutely rad tattooed by me! You can also follow my Instagram @ashleyluka

You've been a star Ashley, and have brought something truly righteous to Elite this month. Before we let you go, can we ask what you're looking forward to as 2014 sneaks up on us all?

Oh that's tough. I'm looking forward to my tattoo studio growing and being able to learn my trade more. I'd really like to try and travel next year too. I've never been to America so I'd like to take some time off and spend a couple of months there. Either that or inter rail around Europe! But mostly I'm just looking forward to Sims 4 being released.

Jo Evans

Welcome to Elite Jo, how've you been? Hi! I've been good thanks, busy, busy!

You've had an immense start to your modelling career, mind if we ask what got you into the biz in the first place? Ha, I actually sent off some photos to an agency when I was a little tipsy! I soon had interviews and castings! I'm really glad I did now as I probably wouldn't have had the confidence if I was sober haha!

Yet more proof that alcohol is terrific! Before your drunken submissions, did you have any modelling heroines at all, or ladies that inspired you? I've always been a huge fan of Mel Clarke, Beth Humphreys and Vikki Blows! Since I've been doing it, I'm now fully in love with Natalie Philips, she's a complete babe. I've met loads of girls through it who I would now consider as some of my best friends. Despite what people think, it's not a bitchy industry at all.

Oh Natalie, we do love her here at Elite too. An angel in dreads. We've noticed (through copious social media stalking) that you've got quite the posse of model friends. Between you, Emma Summer and Sophia Wilde, we think we've found the new Holy Trinity. Tell us a little about that particular three-way... so to speak. Ha! Those two girls are literally my closest friends, the woman sandwich! I can't possibly think what I did without them! We spend a lot of time at club nights or festivals getting drunk and getting the crowd involved! However we also do the normal friendship activities like movies, food, shopping! Wherever we are we literally spend the whole time spouting innuendos, laughing and ripping into each other! As well as the odd photo shoot!

'Woman sandwich' is the perfect term. You guys regularly treat us to candid shots whenever you're out and about. So is it all parties and promo gigs for you? What does a normal working day consist of for Jo the model? I do model and promo work full time now, it's all good fun! However whenever I get time off I spend a lot of time going to gigs, horse riding, walking my dogs or catching up with my friends! My shoots and promo work are never dull, one day I could be shooting head to toe in silver body paint and the next I could be working at an IT Expo as a promo girl! Very different!

It really is, and I'm glad you mentioned the silver body paint, as it's one of your more out there shoots. Do you enjoy it when your shoots branch off in weird and wonderful ways? I do! It's always fun to do something different; it's what makes this job so fun! You never know what to expect! Plus it's always great to see myself looking like that; I can never believe it's me!

One such obviously enjoyable job on which a fair portion of the 'Woman sandwich' was present was your shoot for Crook & Dagger clothing. It's one of my favourite recent shoots, what was it like to be a part of? That was cool, we had come straight from Ghost Fest and went back straight after. We were really looking forward to that shoot as it was the first one we did together! We had loads of fun and it was that which landed me and Sophia the job for Black Spiders - Balls music video, as Si was shooting with Crook & Dagger too! Obviously because it was a clothing line shoot it was a little different to what I do usually but it's always good to be diverse as obviously you are likely to get more work!

Talking about music videos, is that a side of your work that you'd like to explore more? Is it acting for you, or just being yourself? Mainly just being myself, I have done three now and got one more coming up in the near future! I would really like to get more work doing music videos, not only because I'm passionate about music but also because again it's something different to my every day shoot! So far I haven't had one that has particularly challenged my acting skills, maybe it would be fun to test myself with a more acting based one though haha.

Music most definitely is something that drives you, have you been listening to anything in particular recently? Any recommendations? Obviously I've recently got into Mallory Knox (the boys band) so everyone should check them out. I'm also a big fan of Deaf Havana, Don Broco, Brand New, You Me at Six...

Back to your modelling Jo, and you've appeared in an impressive array of lads mags to date. You've managed to eclipse them all with this Elite appearance but what is it about glamour modelling that you so enjoy? I love the confidence it gives me! It makes me feel sexy and lets me express myself in a way that I would never normally do! People don't often believe that I'm a glamour model due to my down to earth personality. I'm a bit of a country bumpkin and spend my life with my horses and dogs, not the most glamorous person! However when I model it brings out a different side to me which is awesome!

Words: Rich Alt-Girl Botherer
Photographer: Graeme Allon

That side is most definitely on display your Elite feature this month. What was the day's shooting like up in Newcastle? It was so much fun! I love everyone at Elite! I don't think we stopped laughing all day, definitely already excited for my next shoot!

As are we! Can we have the Jo official review of the shots? What did you think of the results, any personal favourites? I am happy with them! I can't choose a favourite! I'm sure everyone will let me know theirs once the issue is out.

Well you have indeed joined the Elite with this set Jo. Do you have a message for readers who have no doubt worn out their eyeballs with repeated viewings of the images? Mainly that I hope they all enjoy the set and would love to hear from them! So feel free to follow my work on my Twitter and Instagram! It's been awesome and I'm sure they can tell from the shots how much fun we all had.

Too true! Having achieved so much in your career already, what's next for you going forward? Might the Suicide Girls be calling perhaps? I have already gained my place as a hopeful Suicide Girl so that's something I'm working on! Apart from that I guess I just have to keep trying to get my name out there!

At this time of year it seems to be full steam ahead for Crimbo, but let's ask the important questions everyone asks this time of year... What did you dress as for Halloween? Were the words 'saucy' or 'sexy' added to the front of your costume by any chance? Haha. I spent Halloween with the woman sandwich Emma and Sophia! While those two dressed up as very 'bummy' zombie school girls. I stuck to the good old cat! I made it sexy, dressed in a whole lace cat suit but Halloweened it up with cat contacts and blood around my mouth. We all pulled off sexy and scary (I think).

Words: Rich Alt-Girl Botherer
Photographer: Graeme Allon

No doubt! What else is going on this month...? Oh yeah, Movember. What do you reckon to all us blokes trying to grow a stash? Are you a facial hair fan? I am but sometimes it goes a bit over-beard...(that's a really bad joke). I like a bit of stubble, that's always a turn on for me! As for me, my month is set with a few shoots and gigs, apart from that I'm pretty much chilling out at home in the country!

It's been immense to welcome you to Elite Jo, we hope you've enjoyed it. Can we lastly ask you to riddle us this... What rhymes with feet and is an online magazine that features the biggest and brightest names in the modelling industry today? ELITE! Only the best online mag around. Thanks guys! It has been lovely chatting with you!

Hi Rebecca, how are you? And how was your experience with Elite Online? I am very well thank you! My experience was fucking ace. Glenn is awesome!

Which other models do you look up to? I have an obsession with the Victoria's Secret models, they are on another level! Apart from that I love Cleo Wattenstrom she is just unreal.

You have quite a lot of eye-catching tattoos, which one is your favourite? Hmm it has to be my cat on my forearm I love him.

How does it feel to finally grace our cover?
It's a huge compliment Elite is always full of fitties so not quite sure where I fit in, but thank you for having me :)

Who is your favourite tattoo artist? Matt Webb
I love his style it's so different, he's amazing.

You're a tattooist yourself... when did you start? I'm still a baby apprentice haha I started about a year and a half ago but I got side tracked and trained to be a body piercer as we didn't have one in our shop, I'd love to get into extreme body modifications. As far as the tattooing goes I hope to improve and find my own style over the next few months.

Photographer: Glenn Richardson

Photographer: Glenn Richardson

What has been your favourite piece you have worked on so far? I designed an elephant and started to tattoo it on a good friend of mine, It is still work in progress but I am really happy on how it's coming along :)

What you say your best feature is? Hmm I don't have one I would improve everything if I could!

What do you look for in a guy? Definitely confidence there's nothing worse than a guy that's unsure of himself.

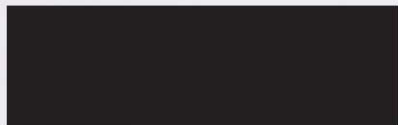

What's your favourite place in the UK? Cheshire because I'm from there, I'm much more of a country girl than a city girl :)

So who are better tattooed men or non-tattooed men? Hmm It wouldn't bother me a guy not having tattoos it's not something I look for but I suppose it's a bonus.

What kind of music are you into? A bit of everything/ I'm not fussy when it comes to music, I love something I can scream along to.

We have seen you on some tees! Where can we get a hold of one of those bad boys? www.deckclothing.co.uk and www.originalgeekclothingstore.com

What's next for Miss Fox? I am off to Australiaaaa for a year so you might not be seeing much of meeee!

Who starting licking body parts first... you are Miley?
Haha definitely me ;) I think she stalks me. Just kidding I wish haha. I'm a huge Miley fan but I still did it first :P

Quick Fire Round!

What is your favourite drink? Vodka and jäger.

Favourite take out or fast food? Both.

Favourite beer? Hate it.

Celebrity Crush? Oli Sykes.

Winter's coming: best way to keep warm? 2 duvets haha.

Which is better: summer or Christmas? Summer I hate Christmas.

A person with extensive tattoos, including a large floral design on their upper arm and a detailed portrait on their thigh, is sitting on a brown leather couch. They are wearing a white t-shirt with a pink 'T' logo and a bright red thong. The background is a wooden floor.

Hey Alice, how are you? How was it being back in Elite? I am exhausted from Halloween partying! But other than that...loving life. Well, after being featured in Elite a few years ago, it's very nice to be back.

Tell us where we might have seen you before? I used to go by the name 'Miss Malice' and modelled for a few latex designers and clothing companies. I've moved on from that now but still have my box full of latex outfits, something cool to show the grandchildren.

What got you into modelling? I helped my friend with her photography projects and decided to build up a portfolio from there.

Who do you look up to in the modelling world? The babes that grace the cover of magazines like Elite, of course! Especially Arabella and Alysha.

You look like a British Alysha Nett, have you ever been compared to a famous person? What a compliment that is! I've actually been called all sorts but the main being that I looked similar to Avril Lavigne back in school and was always having 'hey Avril' shouted at me in the street and in the school corridors. It got a tad annoying but I didn't help myself by carrying around my skateboard.

What kind of guy do you go for? Never the same type but I guess the quirky ones stand out. Got to make me laugh that's for sure.

You have quite a cool dress sense, tell us a typical Alice outfit: I love wearing black and white outfits, with red lips and red nails.

Alice La Vie Is Back And Hotter Than Ever!

What would you say is your best feature? Eyes and my bum.

If it was up to you, what would all men wear? Big furry coats and a cane.

Any celebrity crushes? A$AP Rocky's swag and Danny Browns goofy face. My girl crush is Iggy Azalea

A little bird tells me you dressed as Miley Cyrus for Halloween, what inspired this? Yes I did. It was unplanned though! I went out wearing white shorts and cropped top, everyone else was in fancy dress so I decided to put my hair in buns and there we have it. Pretty much a Miley costume.

Are you any good at twerking? I can't stop and I won't stop.

We may need to see this! What do you usually drink on a night out? Literally anything and everything and I am never sick.

Do you prefer gigs or clubs? I used to love metal and have been to loads of gigs, but these days I'm more likely to be at the club dancing.

What makes a good night out, a great night out? Being with the right homies.

What kind of music do you like to dance to? Hip hop , house and a bit of trap.

Do you like to get a messy take away on the way home? I'm usually far too wasted to make it to the takeaway on the way home!

What's the perfect night in? Definitely the night after a night out, chilling with people. A cuddle would be nice within that.

Do you have any hidden talents? Questions like these make me realise how uninteresting I am. But people are always shocked when I tell them I am a support worker, I don't just model!

Where do you want your career to take you next? I want to live in London to pursue a career in makeup and of course model on the side and just see where that takes me. I hope to go travelling in America before I settle down in London.

The Man, The M Bilacous

Lyth, The Legend

Photographer: Bilacous

It is Elite magazine's pleasure to welcome back the man behind the blindingly brilliant Bilacous photography. Hiya Billy, so what's your first memory of taking a photograph? 'Ello Elite! Thanks for having me again... The first picture I ever took was of Mickey Mouse in The Magic Kingdom, Florida. I was 6 years old and his feet were the only thing in the picture... The first memory I have as a photographer is when I got two female friends to wear underwear with stockings and suspenders, and have a bit of a cat fight while I took pictures :)

What photographs inspired you as a youngster? What got you into photography? I wouldn't say I was inspired by any photographs, I kind of fell into photography by accident. About five or six years ago I was asked to take a few pictures of a friend for a project she was working on, the pictures came out quite well. I loved being behind the camera and it all started from there really.

Did you do a photography course at all, or are all your skills learnt through experience? I'm self taught. To be completely honest, if you asked me a technical question about photography, I expect I wouldn't have a clue. I always say 'as a photographer, I haven't got a clue what I'm doing, but as an artist, I do what the fuck I like'... I wouldn't really call myself a photographer; I'm just a guy who takes good pictures.

Tattoos are a beautiful part of your work, and you've captured some stunning ink in your time, on equally stunning bodies. What do you enjoy so much about tattoos in general, and also photographing them? I love the art and skill behind good tattoos, and the way a person can express themselves or tell a story through the tattoos they have. The love of tattoos is in my soul, If you could tattoo your soul I'd have a full soul suit! I love taking photographs of tattooed models because lets face it, tattoos are sexy. Enough said.

Speaking of tattooed models, you recently shot with Lauren Brock for Elite. What can you tell us about that, and how the day went? I have been speaking to Lauren for quite a while about working together, years even! So to finally shoot her was a real pleasure. Lauren's an awesome girl and an awesome model. We had a lot of fun and I'm looking forward to working with her again in the future.

Words: Rich Alt-Girl Botherer | Photographer: Bilacous | Model: Cervena Fox

You've stepped in front of the camera to do some modelling yourself. Does being both a model and photographer help your work behind the camera?

I think it helps a lot. Modelling can be extremely nerve-racking, so if I know what the model is going through, I can help the shoot to be more comfortable and laid back. Also, when I've modelled in the past, I worked with photographers that weren't very clear with what they wanted and didn't direct very well. This always annoyed me, because I wanted to see that particular photographer's interpretation of me. As I've had these experiences I can be more instructive with the models to get more out of the shoot.

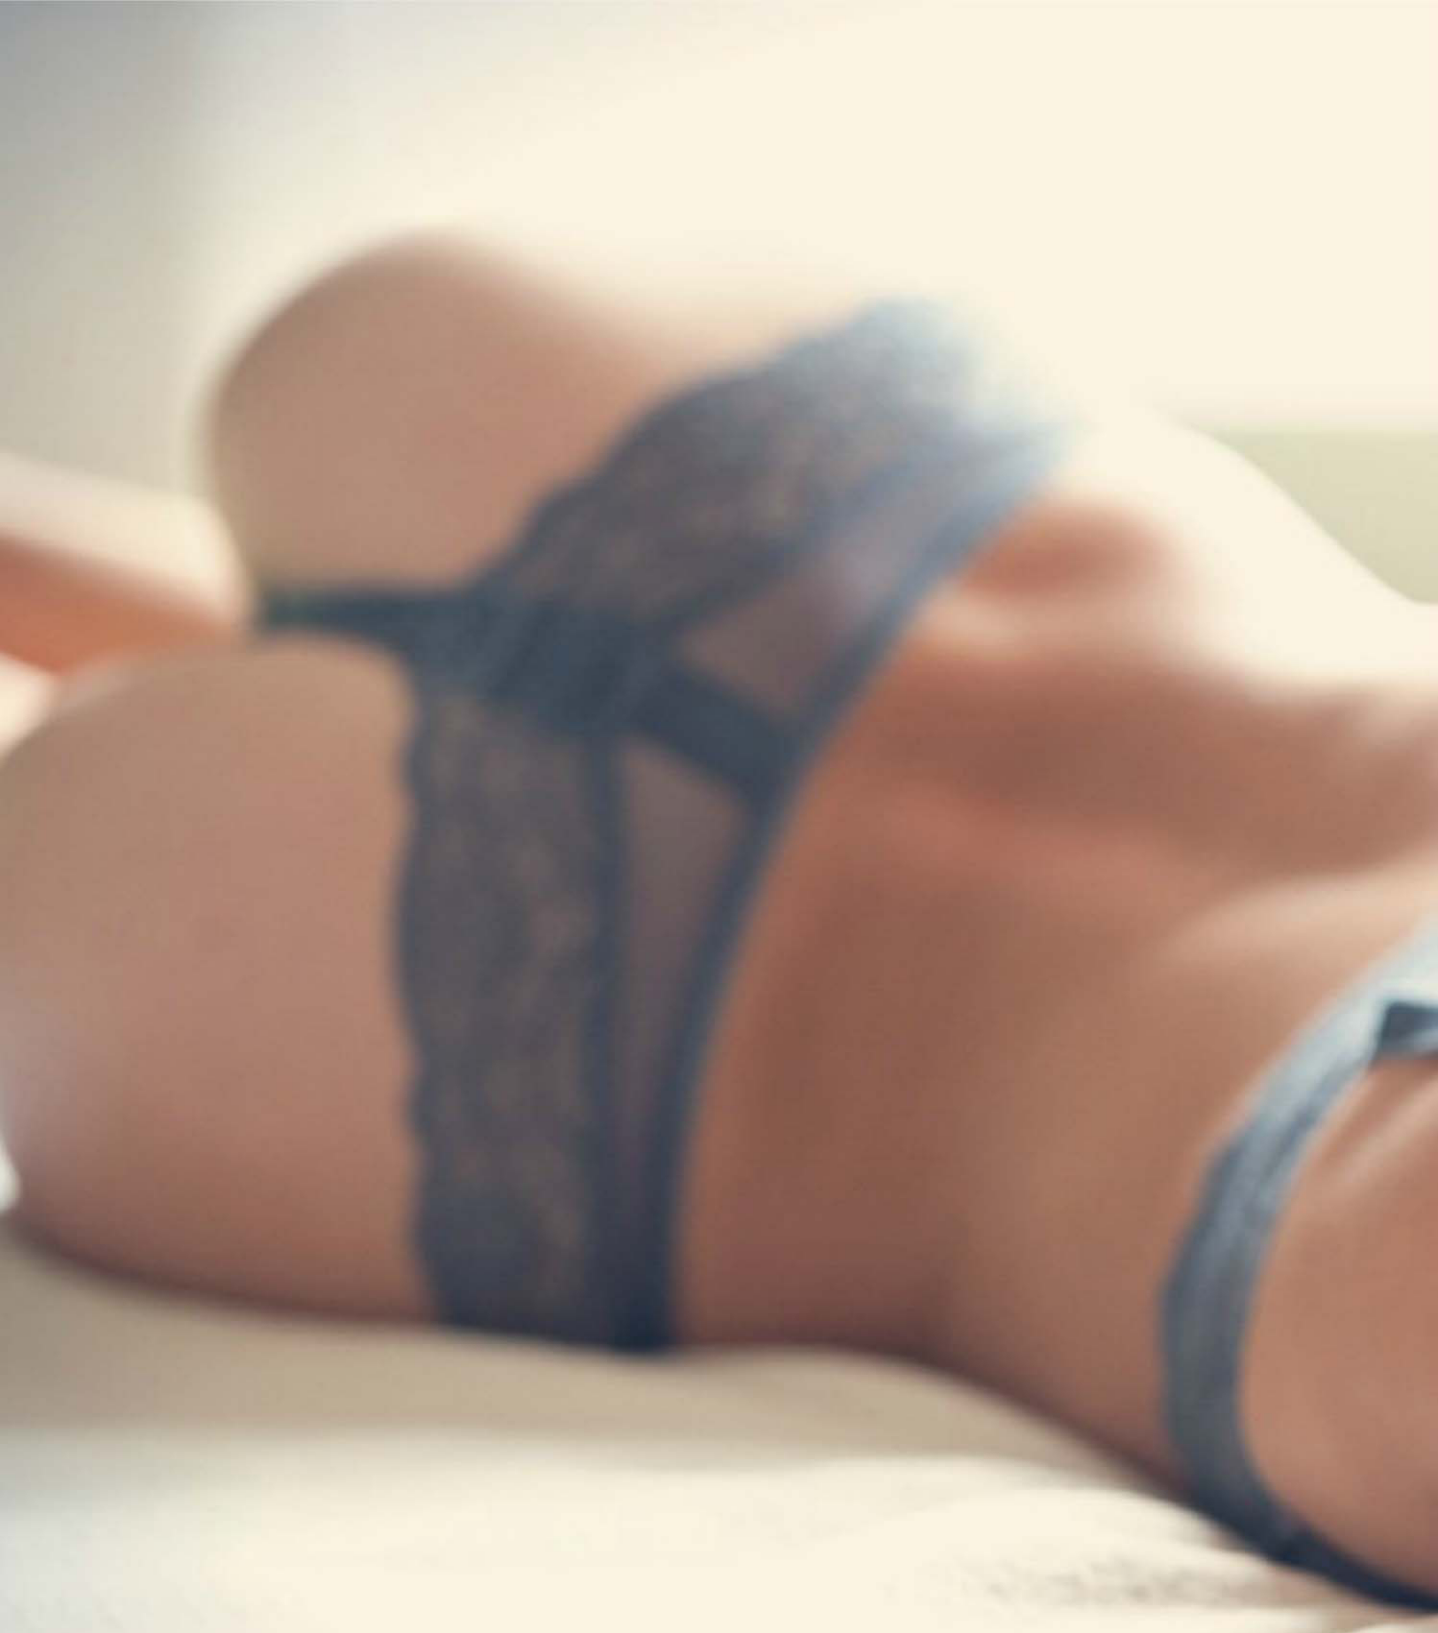

Natural light plays an impressive role in some of your images. What do you think natural light gives to a picture, and why do you like using it so much?

I'm not sure if I can explain why I like natural light, I just do. It's honest.

What camera equipment do you use most when shooting? Just me, my Nikon D3s and a couple of lenses.

Do you direct your models much while shooting? Or are you happy to let them do their own thing and photograph the results? I direct most of the time, but every now and then I'll ask the model to 'do their thing,' we both get the kind of looks/poses we want that way.

It's been a personal pleasure to interview you Billy, and Elite thanks you. Could you tell us what can fans of your work expect in the near future? No Elite, the pleasure has been mine... Everybody should buy themselves my 2014 calendar, the rest you'll just have to wait and see.

Rosie Robinson

Words: Rich Alt-Girl Botherer | Photographer: Jack Russell

Welcome Rosie Robinson. Your name has the alliteration of a superhero alter ego. What would your superpower be if you had one? Thank you for having me! I LOVE superheroes so it's so cool you say that. There are soooo many I could choose but the one I would pick would be to be able to heal people; any illnesses, cuts, bruises, scars. (Very sensible I know) hehe.

We know you already possess the power to produce super-sexy imagery, but what's your origin story Rosie? Where did it all start for you in front of the camera? Hehe thank you. I've always loved having my picture taken. One of my friends Mums was a photographer and had a studio in the house and we use to have little photo shoots there for birthdays etc. She took a couple of shots of me on my own and I LOVED them, from that day on I knew I wanted to model. She definitely encouraged me and she was always happy to take shots of me to use for my portfolio.

I have no idea where this superhero theme came from by the way... It's obvious to anyone with eyes that you're an insanely fit lady in every conceivable way. Have you always been into keeping trim and in shape? Haha I'm obsessed with superheroes and so is my boyfriend. Ahh thank you so much. Yes I did gymnastics for 12 years and competed at a very high level so I've always been very athletic, but I gave that up a few years ago. Now I train about 5 days a week at UTC in Birmingham. It's hard work but I love keeping fit and when you start to see changes in your body it motivates you so much more.

I've never seen anybody look so awesome in exercise clothing. Do you draw an audience when you work out at UTC? If so, where can we get tickets? Haha, no audience I'm afraid, but you can always come along to a training session.

It's got to take a lot of effort and dedication to maintain such a rockin' bod Rosie. What's your diet and exercise routine like? I warn you, we will cry lots if you tell us you don't work out very much and eat pizza every night... Ahh your nice, I like you hehe! Yes it does take a lot of dedication and effort but I love doing it so it doesn't feel like a chore or anything. I do mostly weight training, so Mondays I normally start with a legs routine, then Tuesdays I do shoulders and tris, Wednesdays I do back, Thursdays arms and Fridays legs again. I do my abs after most workouts too. I don't diet too much I just eat clean; lots of meat, veg, fruit etc. I eat SO much though! I do love my desserts too, can't cut them out he-he.

Your modelling work to date has been excellent, with a lot of variation between fitness shots, fashion and lingerie/glam. Have you enjoyed the variety so far Rosie, and which would be your favourite style to shoot? Yes I like to mix it up a little; I get bored easily so I always like doing different things when it comes to modelling. Depends what mood I am in really!

How does it feel lining up alongside the prestigious names that have featured in Elite? We'd love to know what you think of the mag. There are some gorgeous models featured in Elite so I am very happy I got chosen to be featured. I love everything about the magazine; it's fun, cheeky and has a good variation of different things just like me!

You shot with Jack Russell for us this month. How was that experience? Yes it was fun; Jack is a great photographer to work with and I will definitely be doing some more work with him in the future.

The pictures you and Jack achieved are sublime; could you talk us through the day and how everything went on the shoot? Everything went very smoothly, it was a very relaxed and fun shoot. Started off with a cup of tea of course, and spoke about what kind of images we wanted to go for and then got to work. We used a lot of natural light which is mine and Jack's favourite. I think it makes the images look so classy and pretty.

What did you think when you saw the results? Did you have any favourite shots at all? Hard though it may be to choose. I LOVED them. He did a great job! I can't choose hehe, all of them!

You've chosen to model some amazing indie/alt fashion in your career thus far. Do you keep an eye on fashion and style and beauty trends? Anything you're particularly liking as we head into the cooler months? Yes I adore fashion. I studied fashion for 3 years which I enjoyed so much. I have a great passion for it, I love fur coats! Definitely a must for the winter! Even though I hate winter, I love summer too much, and being outside.

It must also be said that you've got a cracking eye for lingerie Rosie, and have exhibited some superb sets. You must have an impressive lingerie collection; do you have a favoured style/designer to work in and wear? Thank you very much hehe. I love just simple and classy lingerie. Nothing too complicated, I don't like looking like I've tried too hard if you know what I mean. I get a lot of my lingerie sets from Boux Avenue, they have so many beautiful lingerie sets.

With mention of Winter's approach, what will you be getting up to in the coming months? Does the big chill mean you'll be straying away from shoots involving not many clothes, or does it just mean you get to shoot in front of more roaring fires etc? No I'll still be doing as many shoots as I can. The Winter won't stop me!

So 2013 is rapidly biting the dust, what will you remember from this year (apart from featuring in Elite of course), and what are you looking forward to in 2014? Yes of course being featured in Elite. I have done so many amazing things this year but the best things I will remember is probably my amazing trip to Australia, Thailand and Vietnam with my partner. My summer holidays were also incredible, and finally passing my health and nutrition course. I've got so many things to look forward to in 2014, I'm a lucky girl. Snowboarding early in the year, Vegas for the first time in April, my new career pathway in health and nutrition and personal training, and finally my modelling career. I'm also looking forward to just training hard and getting my body into better shape.

Finally Rosie, returning to the superhero theme for some unknown reason, Elite is putting together its own all-female group to rival to the Avengers. Which three other Elite models would you choose to fight in spandex next to you? Ohh that would be fun haha! Mmmm well I definitely have two girls, the first one would be my lovely friend Ann Denise because I just love her and she'd look hot in spandex. My second Elite model would be Mercedes Edison because she's so frigging gorgeous and I want to eat her up ha!

PARTY GIRL HOPE BROOKES

Words: Neale McGeever | Photographer: Fiendarella

Hi Hope, how are you? How was your shoot with Elite? Heya, I'm really good thanks! It was really cool thanks! I shot with Fiendarella and he's an amazing photographer, so I was really pleased with the outcome!

Where else might we have seen you? I've been featured in front last year, and you'll probably see a lot of me in the UPRAWR features in Elite, as I'm always in those photos!

How did you get into modelling? I guess without sounding too vain, I take a lot of photos of myself, I post them on all of my social media sites and I eventually got picked up by a few photographers. I've only just got into modelling, but I'm hoping to do more and more. I love being in front of the camera, I have so much fun!

You are quite dominant on social media; do you think apps like Instagram are a good way for new models to get noticed? I do have a lot of followers on all of my sites and Instagram is one of my favourites, but it's suddenly become really bad for models. You can't post any nude photos or anything such as boobs or bums. It's ridiculous and I think it should be much more open for models to post on! I mean who doesn't like seeing boobs, I love them!

Who do you look up to, as a model? Alysha Nett and Arabella Drummond. They're both absolutely gorgeous, and if I could ever reach the level they have I'd be very pleased.

You are known for being a wrestling fan, is this true? YES! I'm probably one of the world's biggest wrestling fans. I challenge anyone to beat my knowledge of it! I even travelled to Phoenix, AZ to watch the Royal Rumble, that's dedication.

Who are your favourite wrestlers? CM Punk is my current favourite, he's incredible to watch, super talented! I also like Daniel Bryan, Dolph Ziggler and the Shield! My all-time favourites are Stone Cold Steve Austin and the Hardy Boyz! Lita is my favourite diva of all time, she's gorgeous and can kick ass, I use to attempt her moves so much I'd put myself in danger!

Would you ever get in the ring? I'm only 5ft4 and don't weigh a lot so I'd have to bulk up, but I'd love to! Imagine if I could run around the ring in tight latex for a living, how awesome would that be?

If you could fight anyone in a wrestling match who would it be? Helen Flanagan, just one look at her face is enough to make me mad. I'd lock her in every submission I could think of, I'd have the best time.

What kind of guy do you go for? A man who can make me laugh and smile is always my favourite. I like men with good arms, and a man who can interest me, keep me on my toes.

Any celebrity crushes? Jonathon Rhys Myers is currently my biggest crush, something about him just gets me excited! I'm also really into Hugh Jackman and Chris Hemsworth!

What would you say is your best feature? I use to say my stomach as it's flat and toned, but recently my boobs have gone up 2 cup sizes and I can't stop looking at them! So I'd say my boobs because everyone loves them!

Any hidden talents? I can do the splits and put my legs behind my head. I guess being a gymnast for so many years has it's good points!

You have a lot of unique tattoos, which is your favourite? I love all of my tattoos, my favourite changes every week, at the moment my favourite is my swallow bird on my foot. I really love the colours in it, my friend Ashley did it and she's incredible!

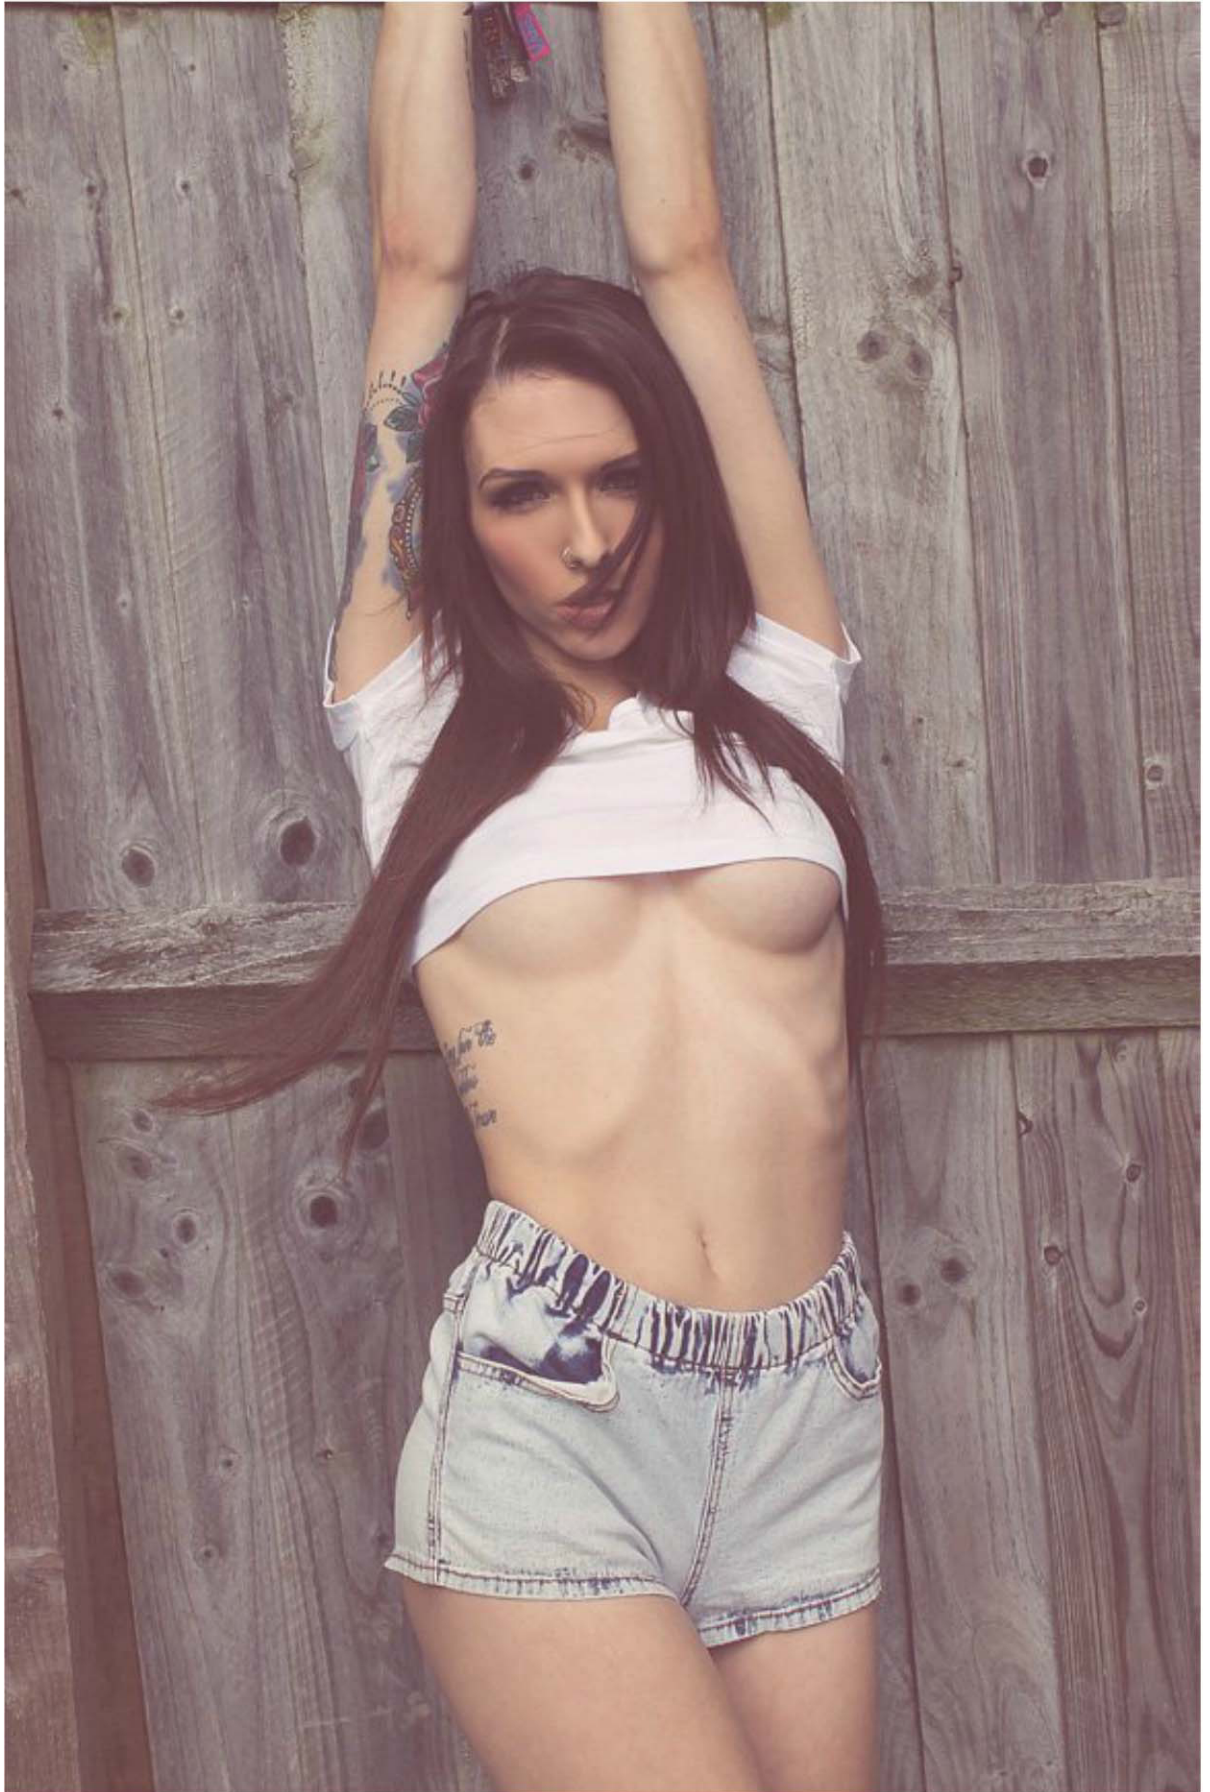

Getting any more? Definitely, I've got a few planned, it's just finding time to get them done. I'm sure the next time you see me I'll have at least 2 more!

What makes a good night out, a great night out? Being able to party with my best friends and not care how stupid I look dancing to songs like 'Yeah' by Nelly. As long as I'm having fun, I don't care how stupid I look!

What do you usually drink? I'm a big fan of Jagermeister, but when I fancy being girly I drink cherry sourz and lemonade, it's the fruitiest taste, and you can drink tonnes before you get smashed!

Do you go for clubs or gigs? I really enjoy gigs, but everyone loves clubs. I'm only 20, so partying is constantly on my mind. My favourite place is UPRAWR, it has the best drink prices, best tunes and the best people. You'll always find me on stage, in next to nothing partying my ass off.

Do you get a messy takeaway on the way back? Dominos is all you need after a messy night!

Top 5 knockout tunes:

1. I'm not okay - My Chemical Romance
2. Want you bad - The Offspring
3. Bonfire - Knifeparty
4. All signs point to Lauderdale - A Day To Remember
5. Friends like these - Deaf Havana

Dannii B

& Keshia

Words: Neale McGeever | Photographer: Graeme Allon

Hi ladies, how are you today?

Dannii: Gooood!

Keshia: I'm blind as I can't find my glasses...

How does it feel to be part of Elite's double feature with each other?

Keshia: Awesome, we look good together I think.

Dannii: Awesome, it's my first double feature so it's great to do something different.

What is your favourite thing about each other?

Dannii: That she doesn't take herself too seriously and can have a laugh, and obviously she's hot stuff!

Keshia: I like Dannii's hair colour and it really sets off her big blue eyes! And her lovely flat tummy too!

Dannii is from Leicester and Keshia is from South Shields. So which is best: Midlands or North East?

Keshia: Probably anywhere but here. But we do have the fair, the beach and lots of other little nice things I guess. It's just the type of people who ruin it!

Dannii: Midlands obvs!

Who is your favourite double act?

Dannii: Ash and Pikachu.

Keshia: My initial thought is, the cheeky girls. I'm gonna go with that then!

You have both modelling some cool brands lately, so what would you say is a typical cool outfit?

Dannii: I'm a massive fan of girly things, I love wearing bright, patterned print leggings with an oversized independent brands tee and frilly socks.

Keshia: I always dress for summer even though it's cold 90% of the time in the North East. Little shorts and cute little tops even though I should have a parka. I could invest in a parka and just be naked underneath...?

As much as possible, my dear! Who is your favourite model?

Keshia: Arabella Drummond, and she actually answers my tweets to her!

Dannii: I couldn't possibly choose, I have lots and I love supporting and looking at other models work.

What kind of guys do you both go for?

Dannii: I like guys who look after themselves, sweet, cheeky guys with ambition.

Keshia: It's cliché right now but the whole tattooed, bearded guy thing. I'm a sucker for it!

Which famous person would you throw in to the lion's den?

Keshia: Vicky from Geordie shore.

Dannii: I'm not a horrible person and I try not to hate anyone, but that Katie Hopkins is it? Wow I mean just wow!

Do you have any hidden talents we don't know about?

Keshia: Not really, I did a lot of dancing so I'm pretty flexible still! I'm sure I could get into the splits after a warm up...

Dannii: Errrm... I can sing.

What was your favourite part of 2013, so far?

Dannii: This year has been really good to me! I've been to Download, Global Gathering and Leeds, Festival been on a lovely holiday with my boyfriends and shot a short film for Drop Dead clothing!

Keshia: I turned 21 and had a cat birthday party and recently I got to shoot my own calendar which is out now! Also I've just seen The 1975 live so I'm still recovering from their sexiness.

Certain men's mags have been told to be covered up in supermarkets recently. Do you agree with this or should everyone embrace the female form?

Keshia: Fuck the feminists. Do what you want, it's your body! And they're already on top shelf away from kids so what more do they want? Even I can't reach top shelf still.

Dannii: People should lighten up! You can't see anything more than you would on the beach on the front cover, you have a choice whether you want to look in the mag or not.

Imagine we are back at school or college. What would you put in your lunchbox?

Keshia: A shit load of pizza because nobody cares about healthy food, suck me Jamie Oliver.

Dannii: Ham sandwiches, love 'em.

What makes a good night out, a great night out?

Dannii: Awesome tunes and sambuca!

Keshia: Lots of nice, sweet alcohol... so cocktails! Lots of ridiculous dancing with your best pals who do not care and let loose then dare each other to do things we'll regret in the morning.

Quick fire round. Favourite Album?

Dannii: The Fall of Troy, Manipulator.

Keshia: The 1975 (deluxe), at the moment.

PS4 or Xbox One?

Dannii: Xbox One.

Keshia: PS4.

Favourite Film?

Dannii: Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 2.

Keshia: Donnie Darko.

PS1 or N64?

Dannii: N64, Zelda all the way!

Keshia: PS1, Tekken all the way!

Favourite Take Away?

Dannii: Chinese!

Keshia: Pizza!

Big boobs or big bum?

Dannii: Boobies.

Keshia: Boobs! Because my boobs are better than my bum!

Suicide Girls or GodsGirls?

Dannii: Suicide Girls.

Keshia: Suicide Girls 'cos I'm gonna be one.

Nyan Cat or Grumpy Cat?

Dannii: Nyan cat.

Keshia: Please don't make me choose!

Christmas or Summer?

Dannii: CHRISTMAS!

Keshia: (In the tune of The Fresh Prince and Jazzy Jeff's 'Summer Time') summer, summer, Summer time!

Clean Shaven or Hairy beast?

Dannii: Haha! clean shaven!

Keshia: BEAST!

Favourite Cereal?

Dannii: Coco pops

Keshia: I need to try Lucky Charms and chocolate Lucky Charms so someone should send them my way!
